iWATCH PROGRAM BRIEFING

Provided by:
DES, Red River Army Depot (RRAD)
Antiterrorism / Force Protection Officer

02 April 2013

iWATCH PROGRAM

Purpose - to identify and report suspicious behavior that may be associated with terrorist activities.

The iWATCH program allows community members to report suspicious activities by calling the RRAD Police Desk at: (903) 334-3333 or by filling out a suspicious activity report.

iWATCH not designed to report emergencies. For emergencies dial 911 or DTA Police immediately.

iWATCH PROGRAM

How Does it Work?

- iWatch aims to heighten public sensitivity to indicators of possible terrorist and insider threat activity.
- Law enforcement and security assets can't be everywhere at all times.
- iWatch works by allowing an individual to report any unusual or suspicious behavior.

What Should I Report?

- Significant information often develops from a series of apparently unconnected unusual incidents. One observation may be the missing piece of the puzzle. Particular behaviors and activities to report are:
 - People taking photographs without prior authorization.
 - People drawing or measuring important buildings.
 - People asking questions about installation access credentials -
- Vehicles left in no parking zones/vehicles without registration or license plates.
 - Suspicious packages left unattended or out of place.
 - People asking questions about security forces, security measures, or sensitive information.
 - People in restricted areas where they are not supposed to be.

S.A.L.U.T.E. Report

When you are interviewed by Army Counterintelligence, give as many details as you can. Here is a checklist to help.

- ☒ Size: Number and detailed description of people and vehicles. Identifying information such as unique distinguishing characteristics and license plates are important.
- ☒ Activity: What are the People/Vehicles doing? What is suspicious? Provide as many details as possible.
- ☒ Location: Location(s) of people, vehicles, or activities. Include direction of travel and names of roads(if known).
- ☒ Unit: What unit they belong to, any markings, or insignias? Other identifying information on clothing or person such as brands, names, pictures, numbers or tattoos.
- ☒ Time: Time and date you observed the behavior. Include timeline of activities during observation. How long did you observe in total? Note time of any significant events or changes during observation.
- ☒ Equipment: Describe with as much detail as possible any equipment observed; such as cameras, writing/sketching instruments, tools, communications equipment, computer equipment, or weapons present.

Trust Your Instincts

We rely on our senses every day of our lives. If a behavior or activity makes you feel uncomfortable, report it!

Here are some examples of suspicious activities reported by concerned individuals that saved lives:

A video store clerk saw anti-American material on a DVD he was asked to copy. Police captured and arrested individuals planning an attack against a military installation.

If it doesn't LOOK right, report it!

A grandmother smelled bad odors from the neighboring apartment and noticed that the empty apartment was frequented by various people. Police discovered a poison gas factory.

If it doesn't SMELL right, report it!

Residents were concerned with a person's threats of violence. Police captured and arrested a group planning a subway attack.

If it doesn't SOUND right, report it!

What Should I Report?

Give as many details as you can. Here is a checklist to help you.

1. The date and time.
2. Where it happened.
3. What you witnessed.
4. A description of who was involved
 - Male or female?
 - How tall?
 - Build?
 - Hair color, skin color, age?
 - English speaking or another language?
5. Was there a car? Note the license plate number.
6. Have you seen this activity in your neighborhood before?

How Do I Report?

There are [three] ways to make a report:

- ★ Call [insert phone number]. An expert will answer the call and advise you.
- ★ Call your local military police station [phone number] and make your report to the desk officer.
- ★ In an emergency call [local hotline]

All information will be kept confidential. Information submitted will be carefully assessed and, if warranted, investigated by trained investigators. All information gathered and all investigative activity will be subject to strict policies designed to protect the privacy and civil liberties of American citizens while protecting our Nation from terrorism

A Simple Observation

A Single Report can lead to actions that may STOP a terrorist attack
